Governor Lynch to Present

2007 Governor's Award for Pollution Prevention

PSNH and NH Ball Bearings, Astro Division to be recognized

You are cordially invited to join Governor John Lynch and New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services Commissioner Tom Burack in presenting the 2007 Governor's Awards for Pollution Prevention. Established in 1994, the Governor's Award for Pollution Prevention recognizes New Hampshire businesses and organizations that have successfully reduced or eliminated wastes at the source. Past Award winners include a variety of New Hampshire manufacturers, a municipality, a hospital, even a postal service operation.

This year's award recipients include New Hampshire Ball Bearings of Laconia and Public Service of New Hampshire.

What: Event to recognize the winners of the 2007 Governor's Awards for Pollution Prevention.

Where: The Executive Council Chambers, 2nd floor of the New Hampshire State House, 107 North Main Street, Concord, New Hampshire 03301

When: Friday, September 21, 2007, 11: 30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
